Forum Dedicated to W. Nicholson Houston

This year the Forum is proud to dedicate the yearbook to the Chairman of the science department, Nick Houston.

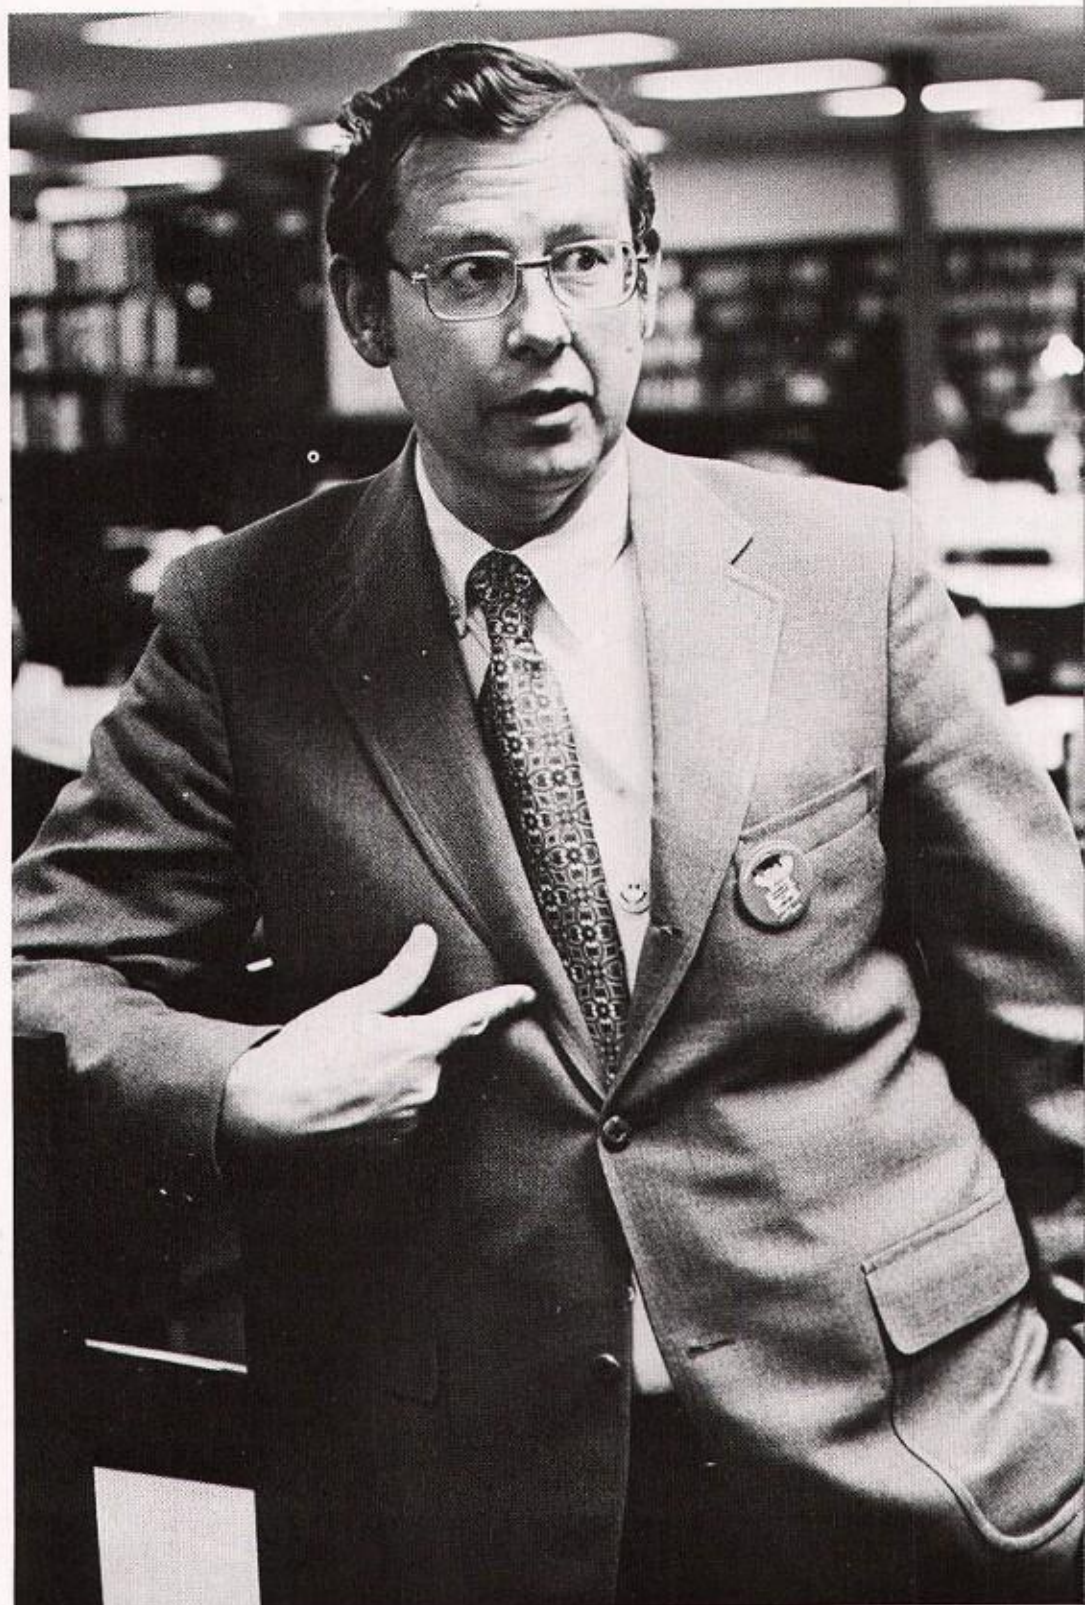

A Happy New Year was being echoed in the Ohio River town of Bellaire in 1931 as Houston was born. He spent his early life in Bellaire and graduated from Bellaire High School.

After a four-year-hitch in the Navy Houston completed work on a B.S. degree from Ohio State. He earned a Masters Degree from St. Mary's College in St. Mary's, Minnesota in 1970. He achieved the degree on a National Science Foundation grant.

With his wife Agnes, and four children Will, Tom, Barbara and John, Houston lives on Glen Road. His son, Will, is a senior this year.

Besides teaching Biology II, Houston is involved in various extracurricular activities. When the cross-country team was dissected from the school program, he volunteered to coach a cross-country club to keep the interest of the sport alive. He also volunteered to coach the girls' basketball team that completed county competition this year. In by-gone years he was a baseball coach and the faculty volleyball team's coach, playmaker, strategist, mediator and rule-maker.

Houston has taught in the local system eight years. He has prior experience at Cambridge Junior High and three years at Colegio San Justo in Puerto Rico.

Houston is involved in a host of civic activities centering around conservation and various fund drives.

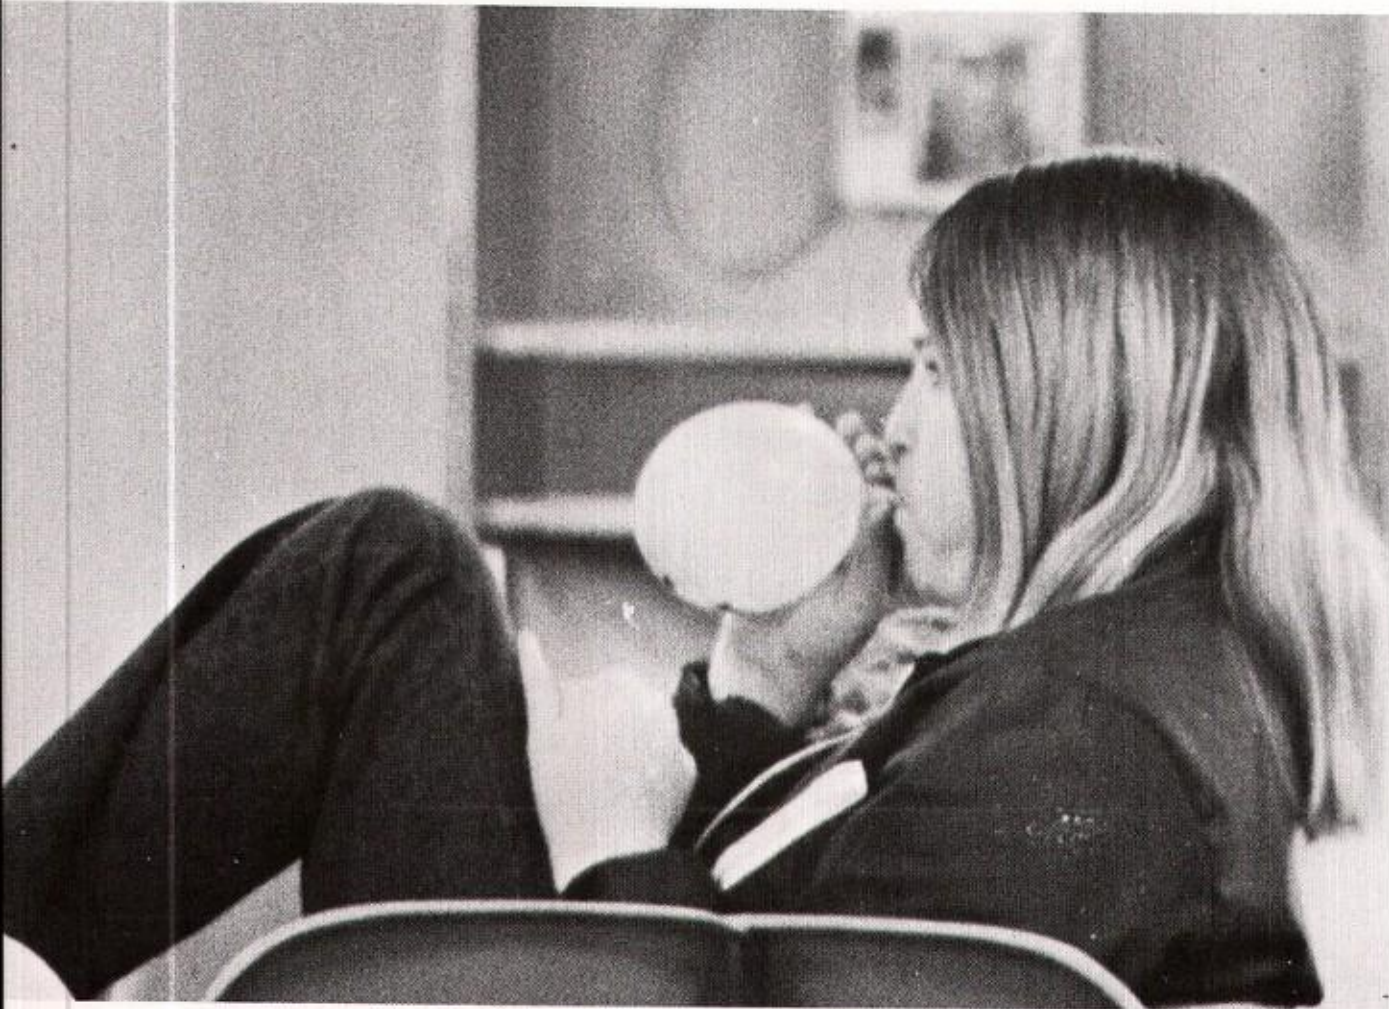

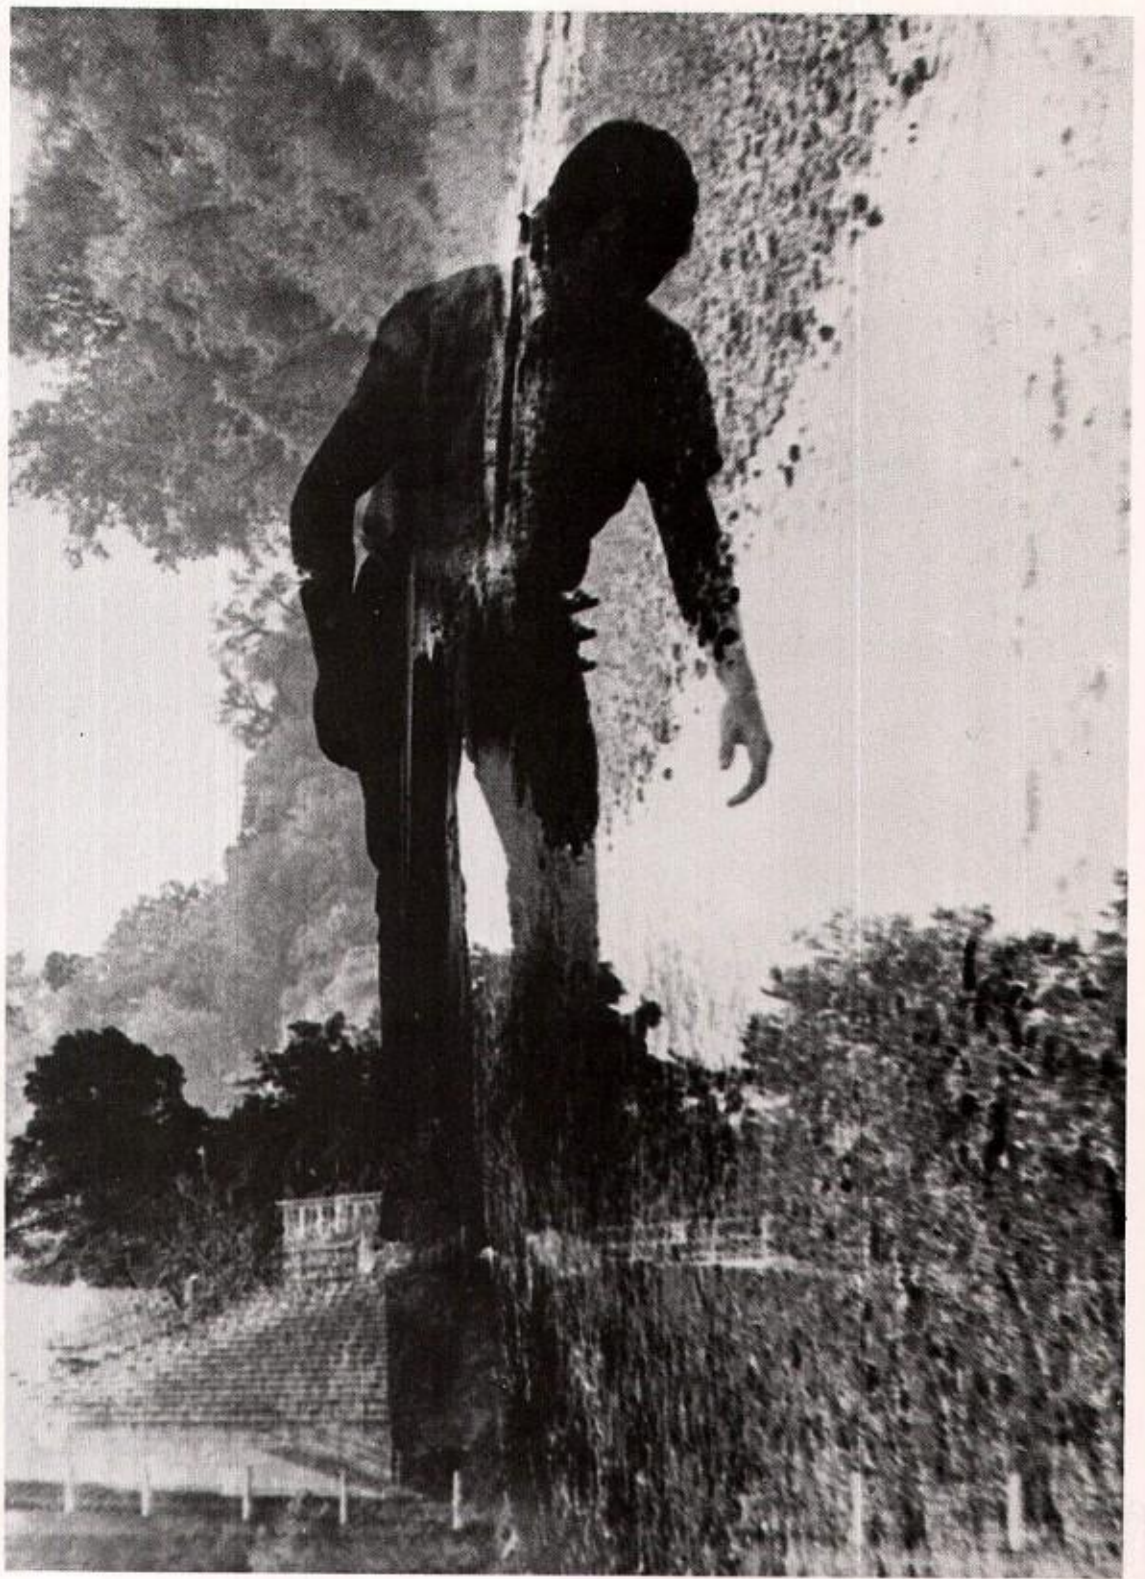

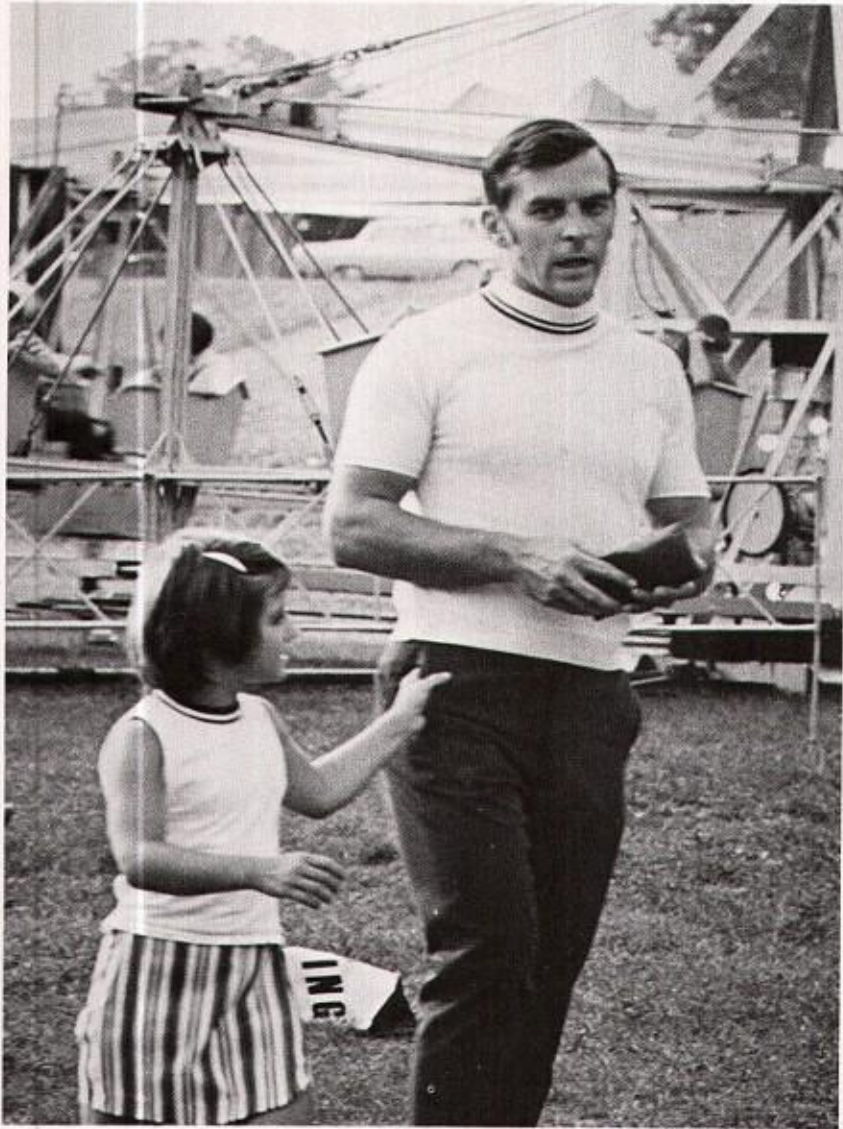

In 1970, he, more than anyone else organized the April Environmental Day and had students participate in many worthwhile activities.

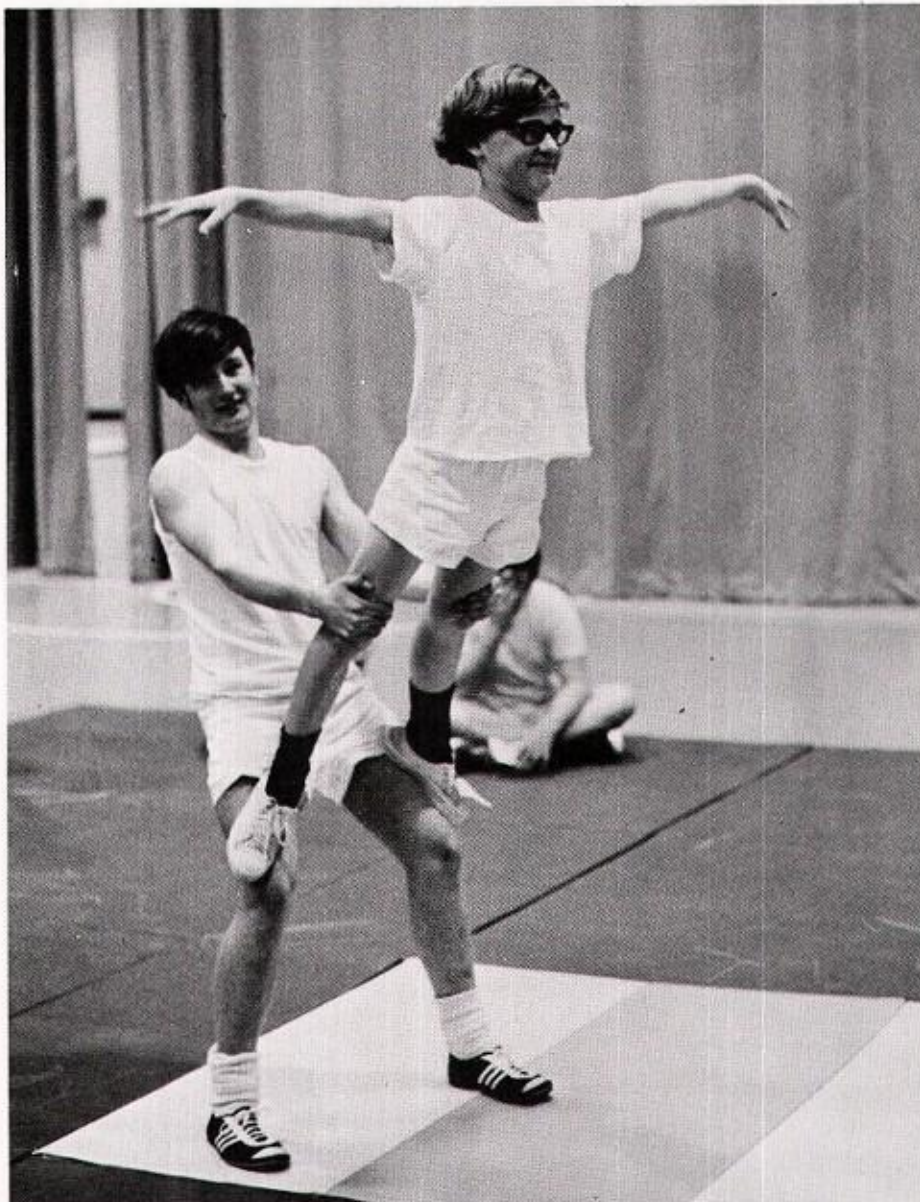

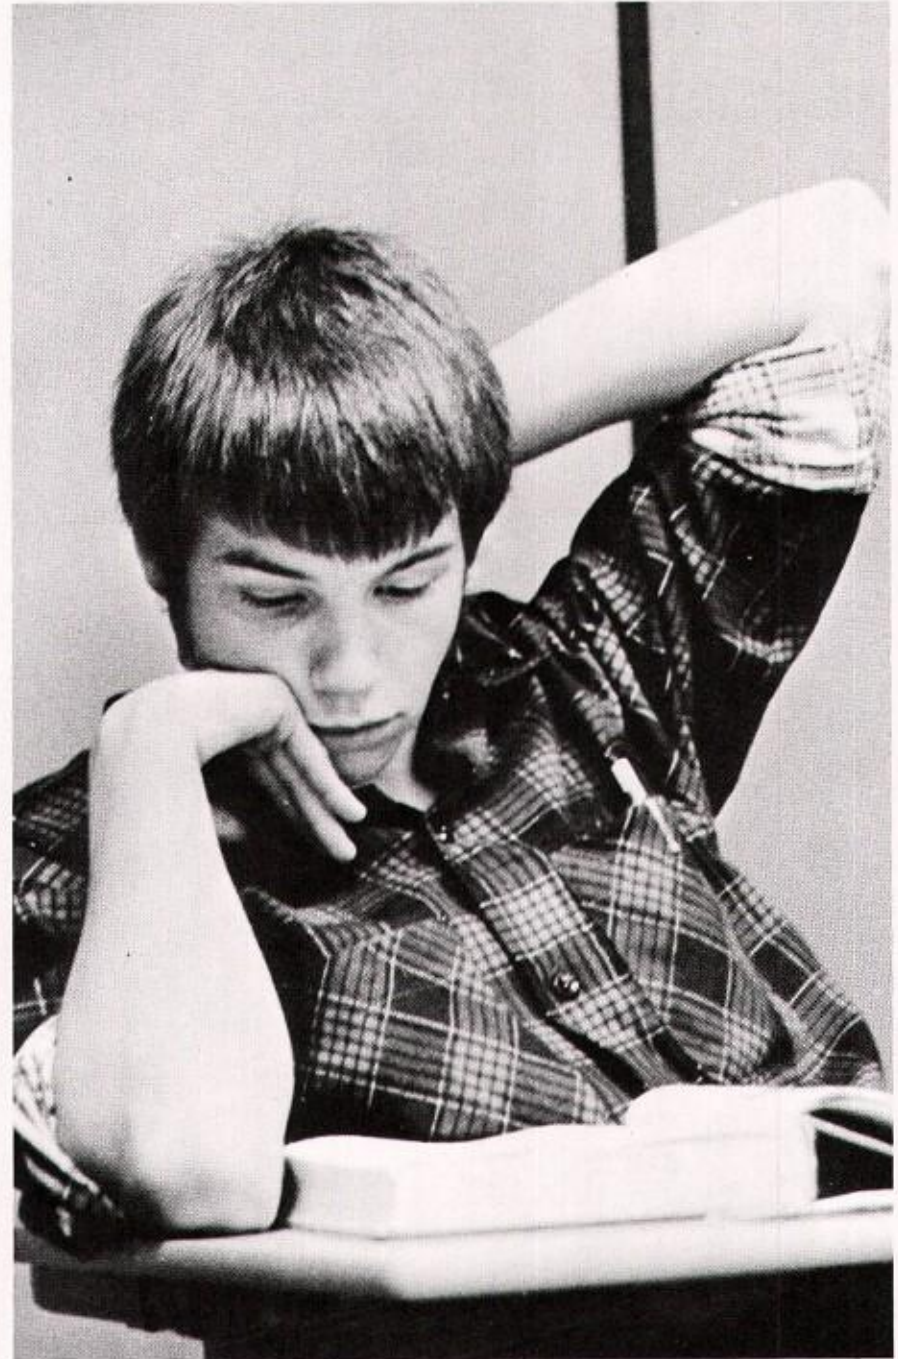

According to a variety of sources, Houston is known as a 10 minute 4 second miler, a hamster hunter, a person who tried to start a goat herd by buying two nanny-goats, an avid conservationist, a craver of beef stroganoff, an antique restorer, a Detroit Tiger-Cleveland Brown-Woody Hayes fan, and an organizer of such experiences as chameleon and cockroach races.

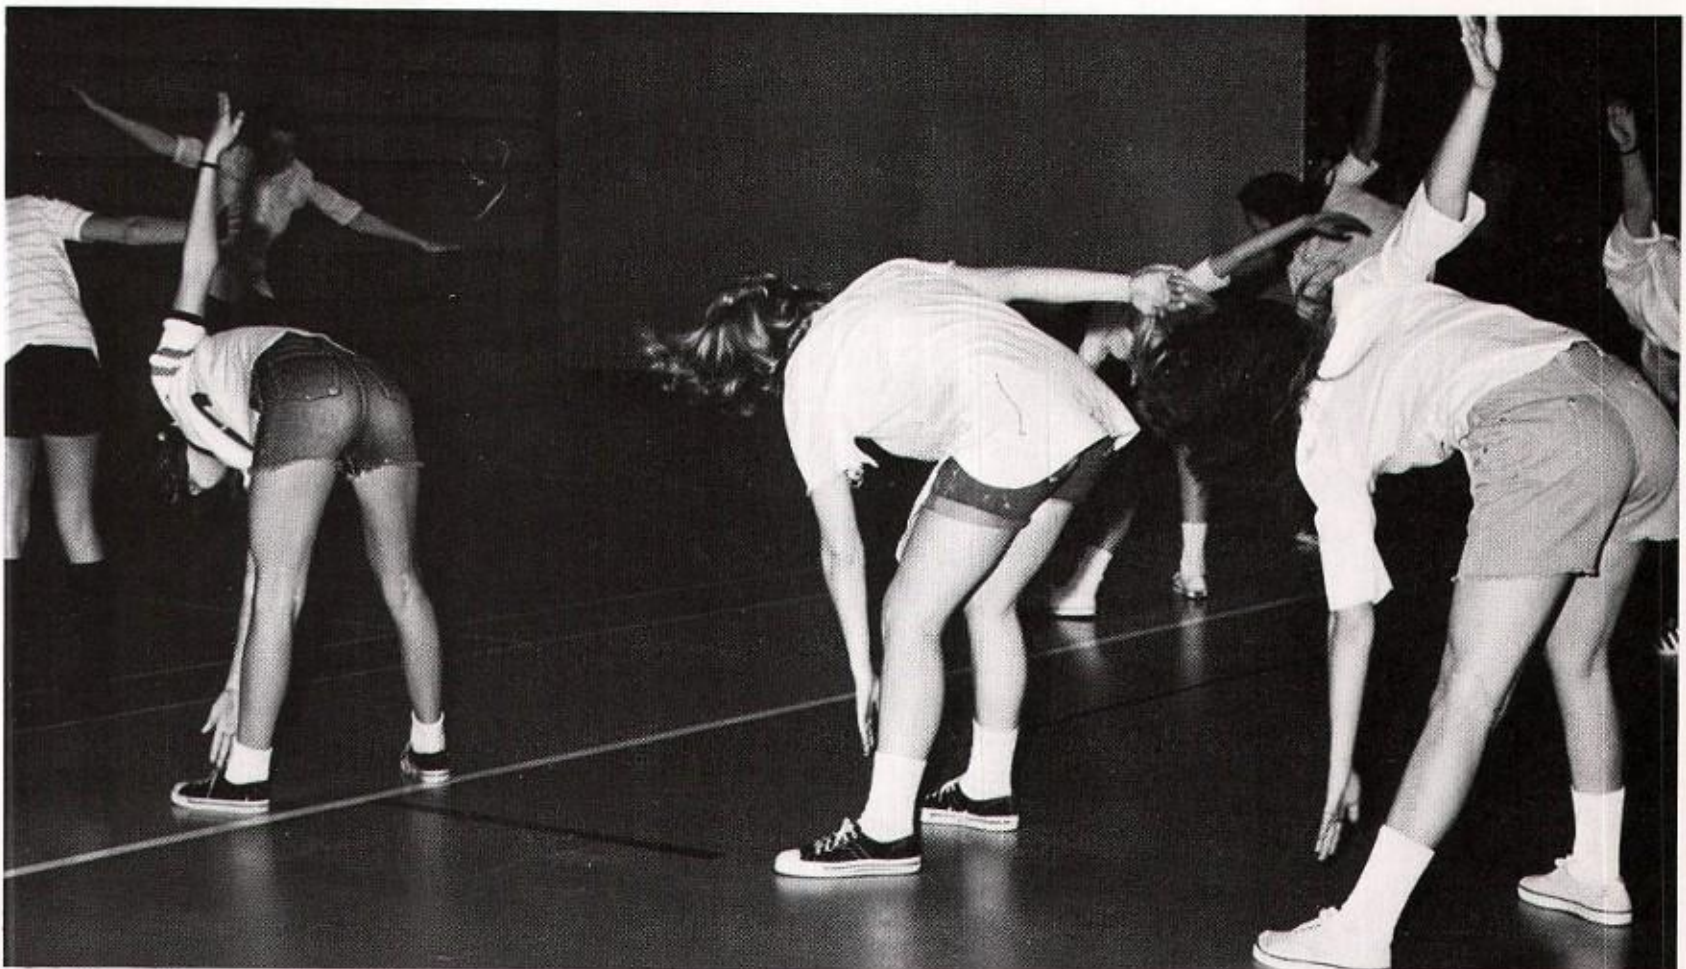

Most of all he is considered a fine, just, understanding and fair teacher.

The Jacket Journal serves as a press bureau for the school. Since the Journal is printed in the Mount Vernon News under the coordinating of Bob Nitzel, the paper has reached a circulation seldom achieved by a high school newspaper.

Editors Bill Courtright and Colleen Callahan received high praise from advisor William Odroneic when he said they "had to be ranked with the best student editors he has ever had."

Often this work involved labor of a physical nature, such as the lugging of the equipment for the Second Session of the Caldwells.

Choir Sings

This was the choir's first year under the director Miss Mary Cree. Highlights of the year included a candle-light initiation, the construction of a Christmas float, several choral presentations, and the annual "Tops in Pops" program. Although the choir was smaller than in other years, spirit was high and mouths were large and the group managed through much talk and action, to pull themselves out of the mire debts accumulated in past years. According to Miss Cree the year was successful both musically and financially.

The choir performs at the Thanksgiving Assembly.

Led by first year Coach Dan DeWald, Mount Vernon's enthusiastic grapplers showed strong desire after several disheartening losses. Inexperience and injuries hampered the Jackets as Seniors Ernie Rousseau and co-captain Dave Hannan suffered late season injuries. Composed largely of sophomores and competing in the OCC meet with only one senior in the line up, the team showed remarkable improvement as the season closed.

Cross Country: Volunteer Effort

There was no varsity Cross Country team for the 1971-1972 season due to financial cutbacks. However eight boys encouraged by fourth year Coach Nick Houston, formed a Cross Country Club. They labeled themselves the Ridgerunners.

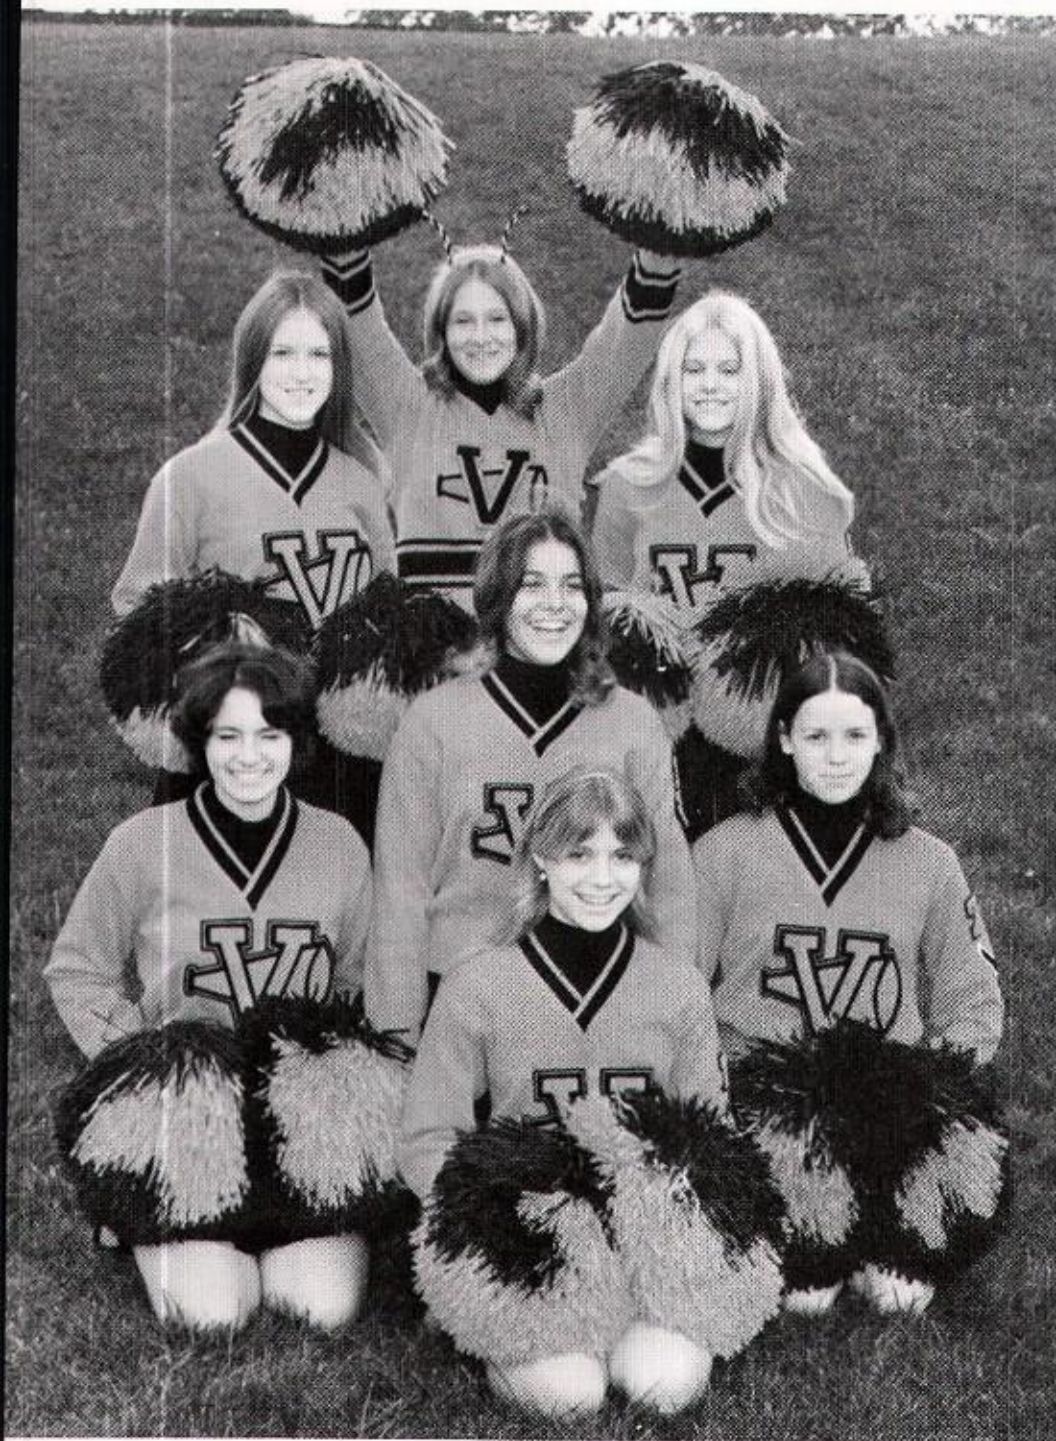

The team ran four meets against nine teams, won 2, over Buckeye Valley and New Lexington, lost to Newark (twice), Lancaster, Westerville, Granville, and Highland. The team tied Hilliard.

They were allowed to run in the OCC League meet and, finished 7th over Whitehall. In the District meet in Columbus they finished 10th before Bishop Hartley, and Columbus South.

Houston says this was the fastest group he's had in his last three years. He feels constant conditioning throughout the year will improve the team.

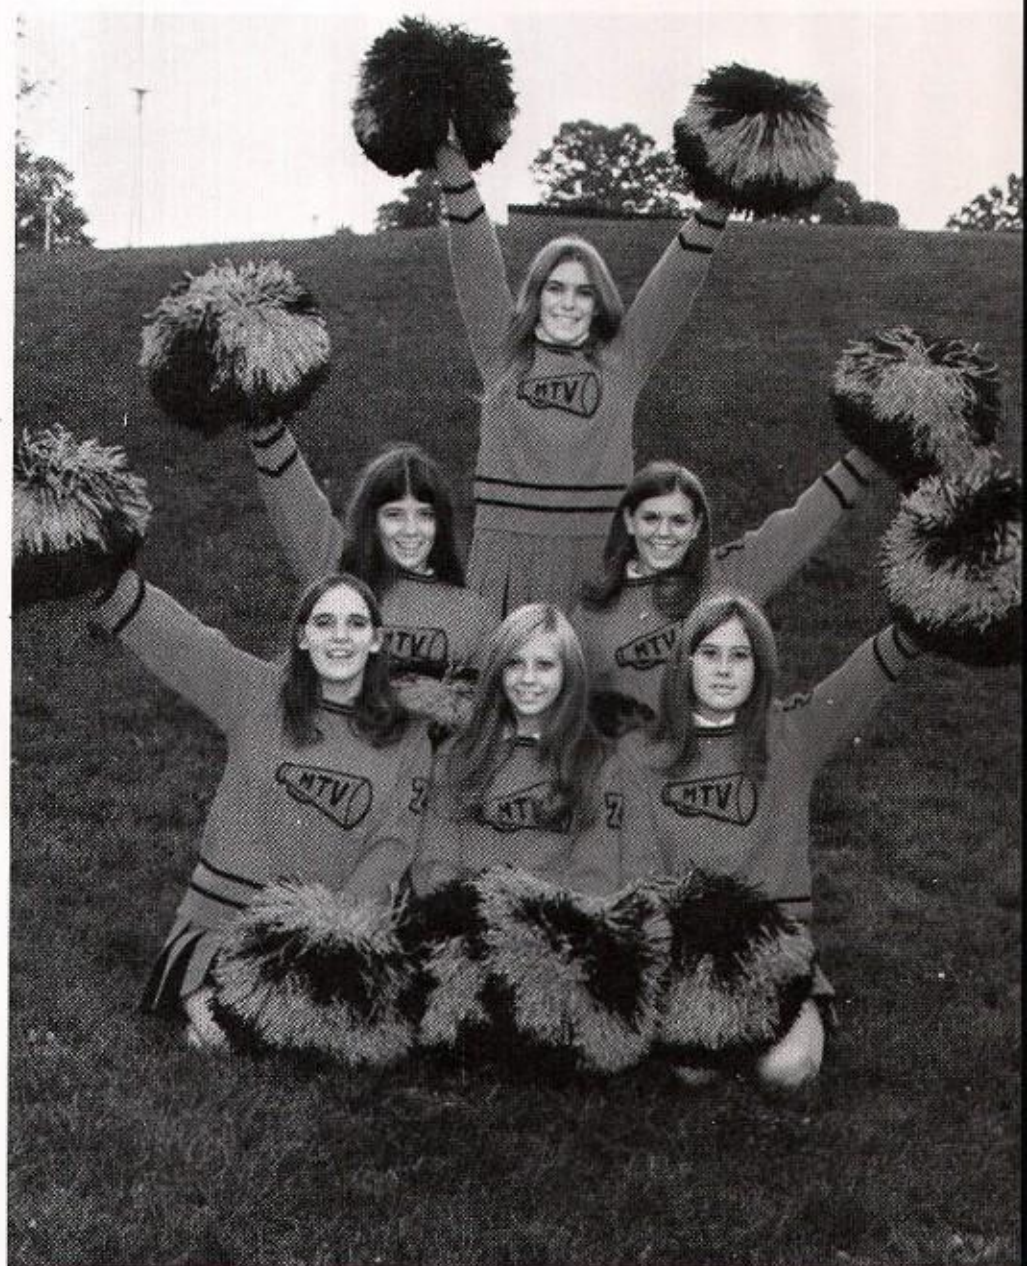

For his volunteer efforts the team awarded Coach Houston a watch.

Vedette Publishes Despite Handicaps

Vedette, the Mount Vernon High School literary magazine is published each year in the spring. This year due to cutbacks in the school budget it was first decided almost impossible to publish. In February however, Adviser Kathryn Dunham chose to publish, feeling it in the best interest of the school to keep this valuable tradition alive.

The magazine is designed to be a creative outlet for students and consists entirely of student's work in art, literature, and photography. Financially Vedette is supported three ways. One dollar subscriptions are sold to students and the public while magazines sell for $1.25 regularly in the spring. The staff also operates a school book store consisting of fiction and nonfiction paperbacks, school supplies, and for the first time, posters. Patron subscriptions of $3.00 each are also sold to help cover the cost of publishing, advertising and mailing.

Officers consisted of Melissa Kilmer, book store manager, Diane York, business manager and Ellen Clark, editor.

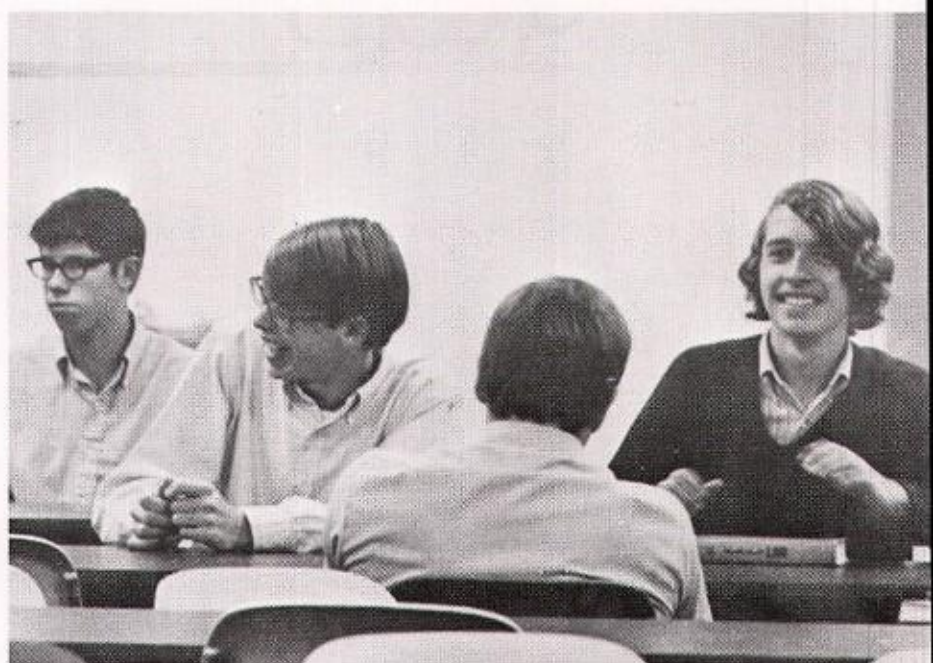

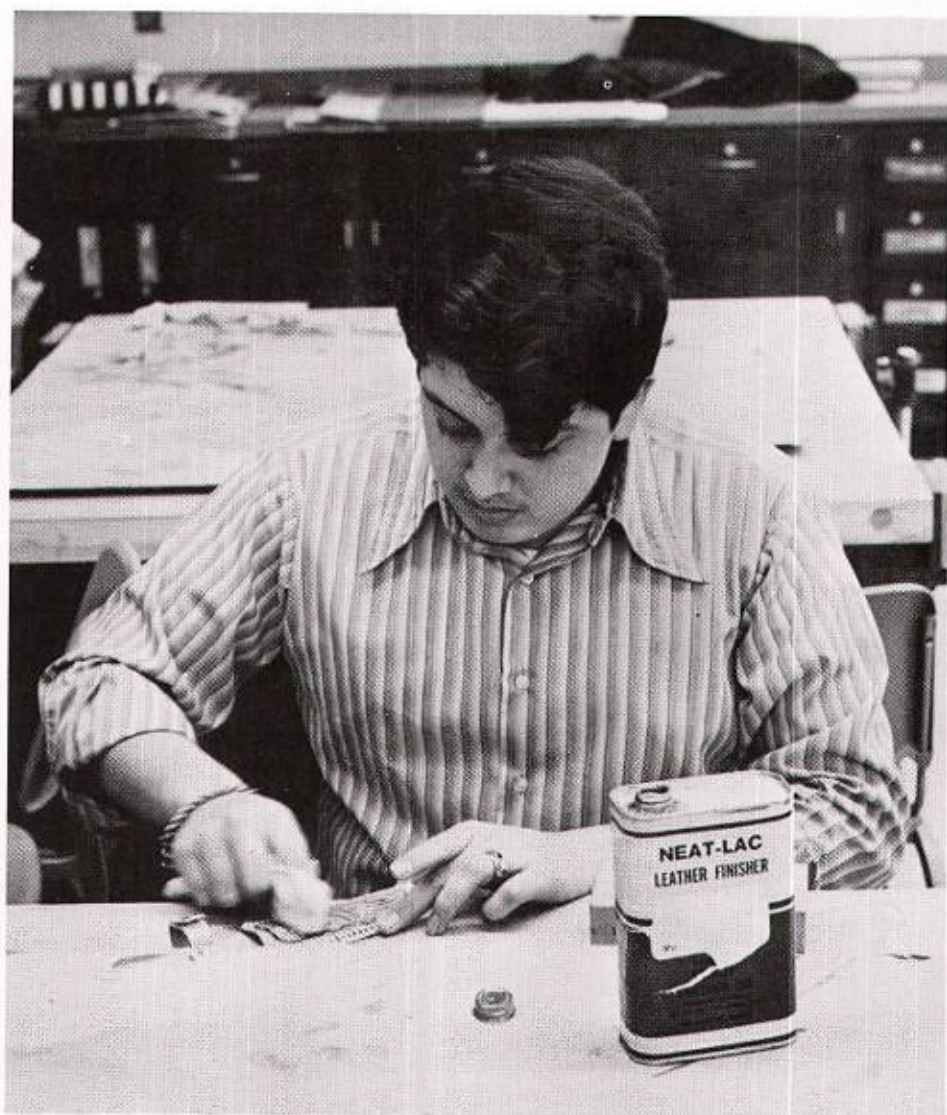

The handicaps of financial problems, being cut out of the schools extracurricular program, and starting work late in the year have been overcome by the staff and with the student's support Vedette has not died.
